Our Students at Nele Lower Secondary School

April 2017

In April 2017, Bal and I went to visit Nele Lower Secondary School. We want to:

- Meet the school's teachers and students
- Distribute donation items
- Discuss with the principal on the areas to support

Nele Lower Secondary School (NLSS) is the first school that Project iBelieve supports.

Bal, a volunteer as the Project Manager for Project iBelieve in Nepal, made the connection with the school.

He studied at NLSS when he was a child, and knows well that support from Project iBelieve could make a big impact on the school and the students.

Road infrastructure between Kathmandu and Nele

About 11 hours' bus ride on the bumpy and zigzagged mountain roads

The school is under construction when we visited

The school is located in Nele Village Development Committee in the mountainous Solukhumbu District (also known as Everest Region). A new building is being built on the old school site.

There are just over 80 students from the Kindergarten to Grade 8.

Students walk on trails like this to school.

A warm welcome

Students and parents waited at the temporary “meeting room” for our arrival

Kids lined up to place khadas or garlands of rhododendron flowers over our heads

Soon there was not enough room on my neck for these lovely decorations. I wished I was a giraffe.

A warm welcome

Traditional dance performance

A warm welcome

Speeches by school principal and teachers

Parents spoke to express their appreciation for support from Project iBelieve, and hoped all parents will keep their children in school and students will study hard

Distributing uniforms to students

“Library and supplies cabinet”

Putting books, stationery and sports equipment in a closet.

(A big thank-you to those who donated them)

Teaching kids to play an alphabet cube toy

Most of the kids in the school don't have toys

They all have dreams.....You could help them realize their dreams!

Support Project iBelieve!
You will be amazed that a little contribution from you can make a big impact on these kids' lives.
